WHEELER HANDICAP DAY.

This is the concluding day of a meeting that will linger long in the memories of the many thousands who have witnessed the many remarkable and sensational racing performances that have signally marked the Washington Park meeting of 1901. It fitly culminates with the famous Wheeler Handicap as the star attraction that will serve to draw 25,000 people to the great South Side track. For this fourteen horses have accepted their imposts and their weights and probable riders are as follows:

Horse.	Weight.	Jockey.
Advance Gnard	128	J. Woods
Sidney Lucas	123	R. Sullivan
Pink Coat.	118	Caywood
John Bright	112	Vandusen
Robert Waddell	111	Dominick
Terminus	111	Gormley
Vesuvian	110	J. Mathews
The Conqueror II.		T. Knight
The Lady	107	T. Meade
Martimas	105	Pemberton
Favonius		J. Ranch
The Unknown	103	Bullman
Star Chamber	102	J. Winkfield
Lady Elite		J. Martin

The Lake View Handicap will bring Abe Frank, Sir Oliver, Memnon and Charles W. Møyer into competition again and on a dry, fast track the Hyde Park Stakes running will probably be reversed.

The purses have all filled remarkably well and all around a day of great racing is assured.

ENDURANCE BY RIGHT.

Last fall Col. W. S. Barnes bought a Belle Meade bred filly at Woodard & Shanklin's Lexington sale and last spring sent her down to Memphis to be trained along with the other horses in the Memphis division of his stable. Before the opening of the racing season he leased her running qualities to Mr. J. W. Schorr, thereby making a poor deal for himself and a remarkably good one for Mr. Schorr. That filly was Inspector B.'s now famous daughter, Endurance By Right, unquestionably one of the best young mares that ever wore a bridle. It is said that Mr. Schorr only paid $1,200 for her running qualities, and as she has since won eight races out of nine starts, it can easily be seen that she has already repaid this sum many times over to the fortunate Memphis turefment.

Her first start was in a half mile dash for a purse at Memphis last spring, April 19, which she won by two lengths from Herodiade with Attelle third, Lena Schady, Winter Bell, Lady Burlington, Hunter Raine, Jaubert and Easter Boy running unplaced. She was known to have shown well in her work and went to the post a 6 to 5 favorite. The time was 53 seconds and as subsequent racing has shown she by far outclassed her opponents. She started no more at Memphis, being sent from there to Louisville. Here she was sent to the post on the opening

Here she was sent to the post on the opening day of the meeting to contest for a purse at a half mile and was a,7 to 10 favorite in a field of eleven fillies. She won by a length in 49 seconds, running on the optimistic all the way and necessarily covering much more ground than the majority of her opponents. Miss Thomey was second and Scortic third, the unplaced ones being Drummond, Our Jessie, Lady Maxim, Dodie S., Cousine, The Fashion, Pearl Ban, Miss Gaines and Attelle, the latter being left at the post. At the same track May 8 she met the solitary defeat that marks her career. The track was muddy, the distance five furlongs and as usual she was an odds on favorite at 7 to 10 but third was the best she could do, Runnels, a 40 to 1 shot, leading throughout and winning by three lengths with Harry Beck second, a length and a half before Endurance by Right. It was the big filly's introduction to mud and she could not extend herself in it, a useful point for her admirers of today to bear in mind. Behind her finished Balle's Commoner, Kentucky Muddle, Corinne C., Lady Appleby and The Boston, and the race was run in 1:03. This defeat ended her Louisville campaign.

She was now taken to Latonia to fill her first stake engagement of the year—the Clipsetta a dash of five furlongs for fillies. The race was run May 16 and the starters were Endurance by Right, 110 pounds; Foundling, 112; Lingo, 106; Almanzo, 103; Julia Junkin, 103; Mamie Eng lish, 107; Jean Raphael, 103; Throstle, 104; and Wedding March, 107. She won but only at the end of a sharp drive. Foundling, a smart filly herself, took the lead and the rail and held it to near the end where Endurance by Right, running on the extreme outside nearly all the way, got up and driving out won by a half length in 1:02]. Lingo was third a length behind Foundling. It was a smashing good race for the winner as, owing to her position, she covered many more lengths than Foundling. The stake was worth $1,235 net and Endurance by Right was a 6to 5 favorite.

The good filly was now brought to Chicago.

105; Quality, 105; Mamie English, 115; Hoodwink, 112 and Doreen, 115. There was a notion abroad that Doreen was dangerous and the reflection of this notion in the betting ring caused the opening odds of 6 to 5 against Endurance by Right to expand to 11 to 5 at post time. As a sequel she won in a canter by three lengths while Doreen got off so badly that no effort was made with her and she finished last. Endurance by Right ran second to the stretch then drew out and won easing up, Throstle second two lengths before Mabel Winn. Time, 56½ seconds.

On the opening day of the Washington Park meeting she proved that she was able to show her dainty beels to the good colts as effectively as she had been doing with those of her own sex. This was in a dash of four and a half furlongs in which with 120 pounds up she met Magi, 115; Pentecost, 123; Blue Mantel, 111; Runnels, 118; The Four Hundred, 115; Red Hook, 118; Bridge, 118; Frank Mc, 111; St. Sever, 108; Bragg, 118; William H., 118; The Boston, 115, and Corinne Unland, 108, and ran away from them, winning by two lengths in 54% seconds, with Magi second and Pentecost third.

and here she has achieved her greatest fame and won for herself a host of adherents ready to back her to defeat any filly in the land, to say nothing of the colts. Her bow to the local race going public was at Hawthorne June 1, when she was brought out to do battle for the Lassie Stakes at five furlongs. The starters were Endurance by Right, 118; Doreen, 115; April, 110; Pronta, 110, and Barouche, 115. As by rights she should have been, she was a 7 to 10 favorite and the winner, but did not appear to have any too easy a time of it, as Woods had to shake her up sharply when a furlong out. She won by a length and a half, however, with Doreen second, a length before April. The time was fast, 1:01. Doreen herself ran a good race, the best she has shown since coming from California.

he best she could do, Runnels, a ding throughout and winning by ith Harry Beck second, a length re Endurance by Right. It was introduction to mud and she ad herself in it, a useful point for 10; Autumn Leaves, 115; Baronche, 115; Lingo,

Then she emphasized her excellence by winning the Lakeside Stakes, June 25, and putting on record a grand performance. Allan-a-Dale with 111 pounds in the saddle had just created a furore by breaking the track record at five furlongs, running it in 1:00%, but she immediately overshadowed this fine racing feat by taking up 122 pounds and running the distance in one minute flat. Opposed to her were Sweet Billie, 115 pounds; Sister Jeanie, 115; Wainamoinen, 120; Flora Pomona, 118; Pronta, 110 and Doreen, 115. Sweet Billie led around to and into the stretch at a heart breaking rate of speed, with Endurance by Right running in third place to midway of the stretch where she set sail for the flying leader and soon having her in trouble, drew away and won by two lengths amid thunderous applause, her rush down the stretch being of the order that makes people get on their feet and open their throats wide

This grand filly confirmed her greatness last Wednesday by taking up 122 pounds in an over-CONTINUED ON SECOND FAGE.

GEORGE ARNOLD'S FINE BACE.

The fourth race at Washington Park yesterday was productive of one of the most exciting finishes of the meeting, George Arnold, Headwater and Major Dixon passing over the imaginary line noses apart. It was a spectaenlar finish and aroused the immense gathering to the keenest pitch of enthusiasm. George Arnold, whose performances hereabouts this year have suffered in comparison with his great races of last year, was allowed to go up in the betting, many of the talent putting their faith in Headwater on his good showing against Sidney Lucas several days ago.

ney Lucas several days ago. George Arnold put up one of his best races and showed a dash of his former speed, going into the lead soon after a half had been run. He wheeled into the final quarter a length in front of Headwater on whom Major Dixon, who had moved up fast along in here on the inside rail was lapped. It appeared very rosy for the Jones gelding as the trio approached the last eighth as he had moved up to the son of Sir Dixon's throat latch.

Caywood now sat down and rode one of the best races of nis life. He armed and legged the big horse with all the power he could summon and by dint of an energetic effort, the like of which has seldom been seen here this year, fairly shot George Arnold's nose first past the post, with Headwater's nose the same distance in front of Major Dixon. Mathews, on the last named, lodged a claim of foul against George Arnold, but the judges failed to sustain it. George Arnold is now back to his old form again and it will take a mighty good horse to beat him at seven furlongs or under from now on.

Cambrian had on his running clothes yesterday and ran to his best form. Favored by the start, he dashed at once to the front in the fifth race, a mile and seventy yards affair, closely attended by Caviar, with Specific third a length away. The last named got about two lengths the worst of the send-off and was never able afterward to close the gap. Moving down the backstretch, Cambrian, running along well within himself, easily maintained his advantage, while Caviar, increased his lead over the Ellison hope to itwo lengths. Along in here Bullman rallied Specific and by dint of punishment got his mount close up to the two in front of him when bending for the final straightaway. Once straightened for home Caviar cried quits and the son of $St. Florian dashed up into second position. Bullman tried his every art and skill to close on the flying Respase horse in front of him, butthe two lengths' handicap at the start was too much to overcome, Cambrian winning by a length, with Specific two in front of Caviar. The last-named was well up to the head of the stretch, and then fell away. He is probably waiting for the mud to show at his best.

Theory, ably piloted by Bullman, ran back to her: California form and had no trouble in annexing the purse of the first race to her credit. She was easily in the lead all the way and won handily at the end by two and a half lengths from Sevoy, who beat the fast closing Lady Elits one for the place. Duelist, of whom much was expected, ran a dull race and was never a contender. Sevoy was rank for five furlongs, but when the pinch came showed the white feather. T Andrisa was badly outrun for the entire journey.

tire journey. a DThe five and a half furlorge scramble for youngsters went to the consistent Janbert, who flashed to the front at the barrier's rise and remained there to the end, winning in a canter by three and a half lengths from the improving Red Hook, who was two lengths in front of the fainthearted Doreen. The Four Hundred, who ran

TURF HAPPENINGS ABROAD.

H. Eugene Leigh, the well-known American trainer, was a few days ago the principal actor in one of the most sensational episodes of the present season on the English turf. Althoug it is less than a year since Mr. Leigh crossed In the pond with his little string of two horses, Inishfree and Harlem Lane, he has long since demonstrated his ability to cope with the very best of the English training talent, and his la feat would make it appear as though he had pretty thoroughly outgeneraled at least on prominent interest.

The incident arose over a selling race for naiden two-year-olds at the Newmarket first July meeting. Although advertised with sell-ing allowances, the conditions of the race did not stipulate the customary sale of the winner by anction directly after the contest, and this fact was overlooked by probably a large majority of the fourteen trainers who sent representatives to the post. The Rancocas filly Soldanella was the favor ite, but ran badly, while "Mr. Eusseil's well tried colt Monsieur de l'Orme was made the medium of a heavy wager by his party. The race eventually proved an easy victory for Monsieur de l'Orme, who was never challenged and on in a canter by two lengths after leading throughout the journey.

Serene in the contemplation of their substan-tial profits, the winner's party prepared to bid him in at the subsequent auction. To their at ost constarnation, however, there was no aud tion, for the crafty Leigh, who had run second with Mr. Frank Gardner's Chicago II., promptly put in a claim for the winner in accordance with rule 56, which distinctly states that "every horse running shall, if the winner, be liable to be claimed for the selling price, but if it is a condition of the race that the winner is to be sold by auction the sale shall take place immediately after the race."

The rule has long been in existence, but the practice of invariably inserting the auction clause has caused it to become so obsolete that J. Waugh, the trainer of Monsieur de l'Orme. probably was unaware of its exact wording. Leigh was wide awake, however, and thus he secured a very smart youngster for Mr. Gardner at an expense of only £200, the entered seling addition of the value of the purse, as is the case in the claiming of the besten horses. Chi-cago II. was claimed in this manner by another owner for £300, but Leigh had a lot the best of the deal, exchanging Chicago II. for a vastly better colt at a profit of £100.

Monsieur de l'Orme is by Orme-Lily Aspho-del, she by Hampton-Jersey Lily, she by Beauclerc-Tiger Lily, by Maccaroni. This is the family of Ormonde, St. Gatien, etc., and Mon sieur de l'Orme holds a number of importan engagements, including the £5,000 National Breeders' Produce Stakes at Sandown Park on Saturday of this week, the £3,000 Imperial Pro Batarday of this week, the 23,000 imperial Pro-duce at Kempton Park in October, and the £10,000 Eclipse Stakes of 1902. He will carry Mr. Gardner's "khaki" jacket. Mr. Gardner's stable seems particularly strong in two-year-olds, for his colt Omaha II, has made remarkable improvement of late, an regarded in many quarters as being but little behind the best of the year. He was bred at Rancho del Paso, in this country, and is by Watercress (sire of Nasturtium)-Orange Leaf. she by Kingston-Bonnie Leaf, a full sister to Bramble.

Omaha II. began the year by winning the May Auction Plate at Kempton Park on May 11, when he was heavily backed into favoritism and was bought in for $6,7:0. He was next second to Lorenzo in the Hartington Plate at Manchester on May 30, and naturally failed to concede the required three pounds to Mr. Sievier's great colt, who is yet unbeaten and is by many regarded as the best of the Sievier trio. At Ascot Omaha II. was beaten less than two lengths by the flying Elizabeth M. for the Fern Hill Stakes, a weight for age sprint over the short'T. Y. C., and then followed an easy win for the Watercress youngster in the Plantation Stakes at the Newmarket first July.

Elizabeth M. was the same weak made an even money favorite for the July Cup, six furlonge, but Mr. Whitney's filly was always last of the field of five when it came to racing. Those who remember her career in America will doubtless realize that two fast races in Ascot week were about all that she wanted for a while.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on pub lish each week a table of the rating of the lockeys riding at each track based on their performance in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated rela-tive skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the the first of the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the lockeys now riding over the various tracks:

Toah assumed an easy command after the first quarter had been run and was never afterward in trouble. G. W. W. finished resolutely. Leo Newell was tiring at the end. Illilouon was right there and ran a good race all told. Dominick put up a poor ride on Impromptu and got him cut off after passing beyond the half mile post. This is not Imprompto's race and it should be thrown out. Sarner was hopelessly cut off when nearing the half mile post. Overweights-Impromptu, 1 pound. Toah, show, 2 to 5. G. W. W., show, 3 to 2. Winner-Ch. h, by Sir Dixon-Dixos.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a terrific drive of three who went nuder the line noses apart. George Arnold ran with a dash of his old time speed but it took all of Caywood's skill to land him the winner from the fast closing Headwater and Major Dixon.
Headwater appeared to have the best chance a sixteenth ont but Knight was clearly ontridden by Caywood in the closing strides. Both the winner and Headwater elightly crowded Major Dixon into the inside rail in the last fifty yards but it hardly made any difference in the result.
Federal ran well for six furloags and then retired. The others never had a chance.

Winner-Ch. h, by Hindon-Cambria. Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Cambrian went into the lead just after the quarter had been run and was never afterward headed. Specific, off badly, ran a good race, but could never make up the lost ground. Bullman was at him hard and strongly all the way, but to no avail. Caviar had enough by the time the head of the stretch had been reached. The others were never contenders. Overweights-Specific, 1 pound. No show betting on first three.

Winner-Ch. g, by Ebselse-Battle Belle.
Went to post at 5:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Ben Battle laid along third and close up to the head of the stretch, where he moved up and joined Serrano, and the two fought it out sharply down through the last sixteenth, Ben Battle outgaming the latter. Berrano was probably a shade short, as he weakened in the closing strides. Scarst Lily had enough after six furlongs had been run. Fleuron was there for nearly six furlongs and the tretfed. The others never had a chance.

He ran like a coming crackejack. Essene finished strongly and was the best of the others today. Dewey, probably short, was tiring in the last eighth, but ran a good race at the weights and was right at the winner's head at the end of a haif, run in very fast time. Five Nations can do better and was closing strongly. Rightaway was carried wide and was going well in the last quarter. Carroll D. must be very good to show as prominently on a fast track. Winner-B. c, by Sir Dixon-Bonnie Blue. Winner-B. c, by Sir Dixon-Bonnie Blue. Went to post at 4:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Blues was best, made his own running throughout and after drawing clear on the backstretch appeared a certain winner, barring accident, and is in grand form. First Whip finished with a tremendous rush, saved ground on the far turn, found an opening and received a vigorous ride. Water Cure, poorly handled, carried wide and in pockets, finished very fast. Cyrano under the light weight was a container throughout. He is a difficult horse to ride and acts as if a sulker. Kamara ran dully today and is probably stale. Brigadier, overweighted at the distance among this kind, quit badly in the last quarter Lateon is in good form but had no chaoce today. The pace was too fast. Watch him with Shaw up. All Green showed a lot of speed today. King Bramble is short.

Star of the West is a stayer and superior class filly. She finished strongly under a skiiful ride and was probably the best class horse in the race, although Schwalbe might have won but for a strpid ride and the cowardly tactics employed ry Odom. She was badly interfered with in the stretch, but finished gamely. Lombre and Bella both closed tremeadous gaps and rang rand races. They are slow beginners and act like pronounced stayers. Past and Octoron got off poorly and enfiered from crowding in the big field. Lieschen was run to a standstill. Stratched - 26790 Emma A. M., 107. Star of the West, show, 1 to 2. Winner-B. c, by Charaxus-Ethie. Weat to post at 5:20. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Ethi cs classed the field and was lucky and well handled throughout. Fonsoles ran in surprising ly improved form, closed with a big burst of speed and should score soon. Eloim ran a good race and was carefully nursed to the stretch where he appeared to have a chance. He is much the best in soft going and can stay further. Fatalist, outrun to the stretch, fluished well and acts like he is partial to a route. Himself opened up a tremendous gap in the first six furlongs, but the expected collapse came in the stretch. Red Robe was outrun in the first part of the race, but caught Barricade in the last seventy yards and was going away at the end. Barricade had a couple of lengths the best of the start and got second place by virtue of it. Woodmansten was all tangled up at the start, but when once in his stride he made up ground rapidly. Skye was cut off at the three-eighths post, this ruined what-ever chances he might have had. Kirklevington was prominent in all breaks ways and ran three and a half furlongs at top speed in one of them. The Prids of Surrey sho wed early speed, but could not carry if far.
